

Airports Authority of India (AAI) won "India Pride Awards" – 2015-16 for "Excellence in Infrastructure Development" in the category of Public Sector Undertaking – Central.

Airports Authority of India (AAI), an organization which is working tirelessly towards India's sustainable growth and renowned for providing state-of-the-art infrastructure, passenger facilities and air navigation services at all the airports across the nation, has won "India Pride Awards" –

2015-16 for "Excellence in Infrastructure Development" in the category of Public Sector Undertaking – Central, for which all leading PSUs of India participated.

The awards ceremony was held on 4th April 2016 at The Taj Hotel, Mansingh Road, New Delhi. The winners were felicitated and congratulated by the Chief Guest M. Venkaiah Naidu, Union Minister for Urban Development, Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation and Parliamentary Affairs, Ravi Shankar Prasad, Union Minister for Communications and Information Technology and Radha Mohan Singh, Union Minister for Agriculture.

The award was received by S. Raheja, Chairman, Airports Authority of India from M. Venkaiah Naidu, Union Minister for Urban Development, Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation and Parliamentary Affairs.

Airports Authority of India

WHISPERS IN THE CORRIDORS

Volume - 8

No. 9

5 May 2016

Breaking News, Before It Breaks

Chain of Succession in Army Clear