

AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA

Press Release

Indian Aviation Academy (IAA) to train Civil Aviation Personnel of Afghanistan

New Delhi, 16th July, 2014 – Indian Aviation Academy (IAA), a wing of Airports Authority of India, has been engaged by the Government of Afghanistan and United Nations office of Projects Services (UNOPS) to train the Civil Aviation personnel of Afghanistan as UN forces are in a process of handing over the airports to the Afghanistan Government.

Officials from UNOPS and Government of Afghanistan met Shri Alok Sinha, Chairman, AAI to work out the details of training to the personnel of Afghanistan Civil office.

Issued by Public Relations Department
For details please contact :
GM(PR) – 9810025069, 011-24622787
No. 25/2014-15

Shri Alok Sinha, Chairman, AAI interacting with delegation from United Nations Office of Project Services (UNOPS) for engaging Indian Aviation Academy for training of Civil Aviation Personnel of Afghanistan