New Delhi, November 8, 2014 : Times Conferences Ltd. functional under the brand name ET Edge, an Economic Times Initiative, founded to empower multiple industries and segments through the dispersion of critical business knowledge through strategically developed conferences and summits, held the 'Infra Leaders Meet 2014' in New Delhi on 26 September, 2014. The 'Infra Leaders Meet' was conducted to facilitate the key policy makers and corporate leaders, recognising the enduring contribution to the infrastructure sector. The 'Infra Leaders Meet' was held post the 'Infra Focus Summit 2014' which focussed on the theme of Integrated Infra: Equal Growth Across Geographies- a full day conference highlighting the excellence achieved in the infrastructure sector with an action plan to realise vision of cohesive infrastructure growth.

Shri S. Raheja, Chairman, AAI was felicitated during the conference for his remarkable contribution in the field of Airport Infrastructure Development. The felicitation was conferred upon Shri S. Raheja by Shri P. Ashok Gajapathi Raju, Hon'ble Union Minister of Civil Aviation and Shri Hemant Kanoria, Chairman & MD, SREI Infrastructure Finance Limited. Speaking on the occasion, the Union Minister for Civil Aviation said that Infrastructure growth and potential of this country is immense. In the 1500s, the grand trunk road from India to present day Pakistan was built; it was the first highway for the nation. After that we have hibernated. It is our fault that we have not lived upto our own potential, especially in infrastructure, which contributes to all sectors. The Government wants to address all the concerns of all stakeholders and investors, because getting growth back into the country will help us economically uplift people.
