Salam Air launches new flight connection between Chennai and Muscat:

Chennai International Airport, 12th July, 2024 – Salam Air has launched a new non-stop flight connection between Chennai (MAA) in India and Muscat (MCT) in Oman, which was inaugurated by Sh. K. K. Shobhy, GM (Ops), Chennai Airport, in the august presence of AAI staff, stake holders, and the first passenger, with a traditional lamp lighting ceremony and cake cutting event at Chennai International Airport.

Salam Air operates twice a week on Fridays and Sundays. The first flight from Muscat (OV0747) arrived with 180 passengers on board at Chennai International Airport at 04.15 hrs., while 142 passengers departed for Muscat on the inaugural flight (OV0748). This additional flight connection to Muscat is aimed to mutually benefit and improve the trade, health, and leisure tourism sectors of both countries.

With the additional launch on this route, travellers from Chennai can now easily and conveniently travel to Muscat, which is known as the vibrant capital of Oman.
