

Journey of Prayagraj Airport

History

- ▶ Allahabad Airport, Now known as Prayagraj Airport (IATA:IXD, ICAO: VEAB) has very rich Aviation history. The first commercial civil aviation flight took off from Allahabad for Naini over a distance of 8.08 miles (13 km). During the Allahabad Exhibition, Henri Pequet, a French aviator, carried 6,500 pieces of mail on a Humber biplane from the exhibition to the receiving office at Allahabad (Prayagraj). This is the world's first official airmail service.
- ▶ Allahabad Aerodrome was among first four Aerodromes established in India along with the Bombay, Kolkata and Karachi (now in Pakistan). It started in the year 1924 and began operations in the year 1931 with appointment of Aerodrome officer.
- ▶ Allahabad Airport was built in 1919, with dedicated airfield whose construction was completed in 1924.

- ▶ In 1931, the aerodrome at Allahabad was set up and the foundation for Air Traffic Control services was laid with the appointment of an Indian Aerodrome Officer, specially trained at the airport in the UK.
- ▶ In July 1933, Imperial Airways commenced the operation of its flight on the Karachi-Jodhpur-Delhi-Kanpur-Allahabad-Kolkata route, which ran until June 1940. The airfield at Bamrauli was also used as one of the five compulsory stops of the MacRobertson Trophy Air Race which took place in October 1934.
- ▶ It was among the first four international airports of the country. It catered to international flights till 1946, with direct services to London till 1932.
