Press Release

Sports Laurels by the wards of Airports Authority of India Employee.

New Delhi – 24th December, 2014 - Master Harshit Tekchandani S/o Ms. Rajni Tekchandani, employee of Airports Authority of India], student of Class XI studying in St. Columba's School has made his School and parents proud by emerging as Winner in Under 17 Boys' Singles and Runner's Up in Under 17 Boys' Doubles in Yonex Sara Delhi-NCR Prize Money Open Badminton Championship held at Shri Ram College of Commerce (SRCC), Delhi in December 2014. He has been awarded Trophies, certificates and cash prize for this feat.

He started playing Badminton when he was studying in Class VII and quickly rose to emerge as one of the Delhi State players. Despite a career-threatening injury that prevented him from playing for a period of two years, he displayed determination and passion for the Sport to recover and resume practice from 2014. After putting in long hours of practice everyday and regaining his touch, he participated in the above Championship.

In the first major Tournament after the injury, Harshit faced tough opponents, many of them being stars from Delhi-NCR, Rajasthan and Haryana States, he has brought laurels to his family, Academy and School through diligence, commitment and tenacity to come back from the injury.

Master Harshit Tekchandani will add many more awards and laurels in the years to come. AAI wish him all success for his further endeavours to perform for the Delhi State.
