AAI participated and adjudged with the award for Best Stall for Government of India's Initiative Display in the North-East Summit, Guwahati 2024

New Delhi, 23rd September, 2024: Airports Authority of India (AAI) actively participated in the Vibrant North-East Summit 2024, which was organized from 19th to 21st September, 2024 at Guwahati, Assam with the theme “UNLEASHING THE ECONOMIC POTENTIAL OF NER”. Through its pavilion, AAI showcased various achievements in Civil Aviation Sector specially in Regional Connectivity-UDAN Scheme and development of civil aviation infrastructure in the North East Region. The stall had a digital interactive panel which was the center of attraction for visitors like students, professionals from various industries, Government Departments and Public Sectors.

AAI was adjudged with the award for Best Stall for Government of India's Initiative Display which was presented by Hon'ble Minister of Fisheries, Govt. of Assam, Shri Keshab Mahanta.

AAI also exhibited the world class air navigation facilities and related communication system and displayed its existing aviation infrastructure as well as upcoming projects in the North Eastern Region through display panels.

Regional connectivity in the North East region has been key focus area for AAI and has been actively involved in modernizing and upgrading existing airports as well as constructing new ones to improve air connectivity in the region.

The government in collaboration with AAI plans to further expand air connectivity by developing more airports and introducing new air routes under the UDAN scheme.
