

Airports Authority of India

Press Release

AAI's stand on fake recruitment advertisements published in its name

New Delhi, 20th March, 2018: The Airports Authority of India has recently noticed various fake advertisements promising jobs to aspirants in its name. Desperate candidates are reaching out to AAI with complaints ranging from fake vacancy advertisements to fraudulent appointment letters for which they have paid money. It has been noticed that fraudulent recruitment advertisements and job offers are being made by some unscrupulous elements forging Airports Authority of India's name/logo and trying to deceive general public and job aspirants by false promises of securing jobs in AAI.

AAI has been receiving the complaints from across the country and has advised the individual concerned to file official complaint with local police station. AAI has also published a notice for caution regarding "fraudulent recruitment" on the homepage of its corporate website to inform all job aspirants to exercise caution and not to be misled by false advertisements in name of AAI.

AAI clarifies it has not authorized any agency or website to either advertise job vacancies or to accept any application for recruitment for AAI's vacancies. All the vacancies & recruitment in AAI are notified on AAI's website, Employment News/Rojgar Samachar and leading newspapers. Link to apply for AAI vacancies is available only on AAI's official website www.aai.aero and not on any other website. Only application fee is payable at the time of Online Registration and no other payments are sought at any stages of recruitment.

"We have advised people to refrain from falling prey to such fake advertisements. Airports Authority of India will bear no responsibility for any loss or damage caused by any such unscrupulous elements. We have also recommended people that in case of any vacancy, they should verify from Employment News and AAI's official website before applying", Shri. Sanjay Jain, ED (HR), AAI said.

Issued by Corporate Communications

Department

For details please contact:
GM (CC), 9811521881, 011-24622787
Press Release No.71 /2017-18

