Kalyanmayee, AAI organised Baby Show

New Delhi, 23rd November, 2017: A baby show was organized at Modern Montessori International Kalyanmayee, a pre-school of Airports Authority of India's Women Welfare Association recently. Mrs. Anjali Mohapatra, President of the association inaugurated the event.

In the baby show, topics related to routine care of the newborn, importance of child health vaccination were discussed with parents and appropriate solutions were provided by the pediatricians from the expert panel of PSRI.

The show was sponsored by PSRI Hospital, IDDS and gifting partners Tupperware, Cetaphil and GSK made the event a great success with activities like art and craft, storytelling, magic show and selfie corner.

The baby show was a significant step towards meeting the expectations of parents and caregivers who pose great faith in school's long standing legacy of being a baby care center besides all the family time of fun and frolic.

This school is an initiative of Kalyanmayee in collaboration with Modern Montessori International (London) to unbox the creativity of the little minds through a gamut of activities, wherein children get ample opportunities to showcase their talent.
