

AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA

Press Release

Sh. Sanjay Jain takes over as Regional Executive Director, Eastern Region in Airports Authority of India at Kolkata

Kolkata

03rd March, 2016

Shri Sanjay Jain has taken over the charge of Regional Executive Director (Eastern Region) Airports Authority of India, Kolkata on 10th February, 2016. Sh. Jain, B. E. (Elect.) with MBA degree, joined on January 1989, the then National Airports Authority which was later on renamed as Airports Authority of India((AAI).

Prior to holding this onerous responsibility Sh. Jain has shouldered important assignments at various levels in different Directorates of AAI. He is a person with 9 years of vast and varied experience as Airport Director at various airports in different regions of the country. Gaya Airport, a Non-operational Airport, was developed and transformed into an international Airport under his stewardship besides executing many important projects including one at world's highest Airport at Leh.

He has received advance training and attended courses in various fields & disciplines connected to aviation in India and abroad such as Airport Management Professional Accreditation Programme (AMPAP), Advance Management Programme (AMP) from Management Development Institute (MDI), Airport Transport Management from Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Ahmedabad.

Issues by Public Relations Department
Eastern Region
No.02/2016

Sh. Sanjay Jain takes over as Regional Executive Director, Eastern Region in Airports Authority of India at Kolkata