

AIRPORTS AUTHORITY OF INDIA

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Today 5th November 2011, Airports Authority of India, New Delhi

Observance of Vigilance Awareness Week on the theme- 'Participative Vigilance'

The Vigilance Awareness Week was observed in Airports Authority of India from 31st October to 5th November, 2011.

During the week many programmes such as motivational lectures, debates on the theme of the Vigilance Awareness Week i.e. 'Participative Vigilance' etc. were organized to bring awareness among the employees towards transparency in day to day activity keeping in mind the Rules & Regulations and the needs to serve the end customer.

On the closing day function of the Vigilance Awareness Week, i.e. on 5th November, 2011 at Corporate Head Quarter; Shri. K.D. Tripathi, Secretary CVC was the Chief Guest while Chairman AAI, Shri. V.P. Agrawal presided over the function and Board Members; Member(Plg), Member(Ops), Member(ANS/Fin) and CVO Shri. B. Pradhan shared the dias. The program started with the song on the theme of 'Integrity' sung by the children of Kendriya Vidyalaya, Rangpuri.

On the occasion Shri. B. Pradhan, CVO gave a detailed presentation about the proactive activities of AAI concerning vigilance and highlighted the role of CVC being instrumental in its achievements. Member(Ops), Member(ANS) and Member(Plg) also addresses the gathering and highlighted the concept of self change, sharing responsibility and use of modern day technology in achieving the proactive vigilance across the organization.

Shri. V. P. Agrawal, Chairman AAI appreciated the efforts being undertaken by the CVO in spreading necessary awareness regarding systematic improvements for delivery of corruption free services in the organization and highlighted the importance of the same for an efficient and progressive organization such as AAI. He further highlighted the importance of efficiency and transparency in particular the AAI being an international organization in terms of its clients spread across the world and having its international impact in terms of Corporate image.

Shri. K.D. Tripathi, Secretary CVC appreciated the work done by Airports Authority of India in the area of Corporate Governance. He stated that the institutions such as CVC and provisions of RTI were established for meeting the transparency requirements towards satisfaction of various information seekers. He emphasized that the transparency helps in building the requisite economic growth. He also stressed that in public procurements we shall always look for value for money and transactions shall be in a fair and transparent manner.

On this occasion Shri. K.D. Tripathi, Secretary CVC and Shri. V.P. Agrawal Chairman, AAI released the special issue of vigilance magazine "Crystal Clear".

For High Resolution Click Here

Shri. K.D. Tripathi, Secretary CVC , Shri. V.P. Agrawal Chairman, AAI(right) and Shri. B. Pradhan, CVO(left) releasing the special issue of vigilance magazine "Crystal Clear" on the occasion of closing day ceremony of Vigilance Awareness Week observed in AAI from 31st October, 2011 to 5th November, 2011.

Airports Authority of India

Issued By Public Relations Department

For Further details please contact :

General Manager (Public Relations)

Phone:011-24622787,09810025069

Email:gmpmr@aai.aero,gsbawagmpmr@gmail.com