REFERENCE-With the talk about Union Defence Minister AK Antonys wife, Elizabeth Antony and her expensive works of art hogging the social media space the last couple of days, the matter seem to be clearly blown out of proportion. The Rs 28 crore deal that Mrs Antony bagged after she managed to sell two of her paintings to the Airport Authority of India (AAI) has already become the talk of the town, with the proceeds from the rest of the total eight paintings not disclosed yet. Reports had emerged on Monday that Elizabeths paintings displayed at the India Habitat Centre earlier was picked by the Airports authority for the insane amount in December last year. Social network users were aghast at the news citing that when the airlines is neck deep in debt, was such an extravaganze warranted. news published on 2015-Jun 20:
