In reference to letter No. AAI/ER/RTI/PIO/2026/789 dated: 07.01.2026, and RTI application vide Registration no AAIKO/R/E/25/00127 dated: 22/12/2025, reply of the RTI query is given below:

Sl no.	RTI query	Reply
1	Vide CHQ letter number AAI/NS/GM CNS Meeting/2012 dated 28/01/2013(copy attached of CATC quality assurance manual) regarding nomination criteria for various CNS training courses one of criteria was, Officer being considered for nomination should not be tentatively due for tenure posting in the ensure year in case of specialized system training like ASMGCS, Radar and Automation. Recently nominations have been invited for ILS(NPO RTS) CNS PLI training which is going to be conducted at Raipur and RCDU Delhi wef 12 January and 5 January 2026 respectively. As ILS(NPO RTS) also come under specialized system training as mentioned above, hence please provide information whether this criteria is being verified by RTC ER, Kolkata that officer being nominated is not due for tenure./ intra region/out of region transfer while processing nominations received from Eastern region stations for ILS(NPO RTS) PLI courses at Raipur and RCDU respectively. If same is being verified please provide documentary proof for same. Vide AAI/NS/TxFR-Gen/302/ 2025/181 dated 18.12.2025 (copy attached) all seniority lists for tenure, intra region and out of region have been defined. It is pertinent to mention that an executive who completes training in month of January and then transferred out on tenure/ Intra region /out of region transfer in March transfer season, there is no utilization by station of his training.	CNS PLI ILS (NPO RTS) is not a specialized system training like ASMGCS, Radar and Automation as per CHQ letter no. AAI/GM CNS Meeting/2012 dated 28.01.2013.
