Dear Charbey,

I would like to draw your attention on the representation of Shri V. Rajagopal, Baltimore, USA addressed to Hon'ble Prime Minister regarding establishment of Baby Feeding Cubicles (BFC) at all Airports, all Major Railway Stations and Bus Stops to help young mothers to feed their infants with utmost privacy (copy enclosed).

2. The said representation mentions that lack of facility for mother breastfeeding is a big bane for all our young embarrassing women to feed the infants. Hence, Baby Feeding Cubicle or separate room is required to be set up in all Airports, all major Railway Stations and Bus Stops. This essential service will be a great boon and memorable social service to lakhs of travelling women and innocent babies.

3. I would like to request you to look into the matter personally and also to consider for establishment of Baby Feeding Cubicles or separate rooms at all Airports.

Respected Sir,

Pranam URGENT PRIORITY

On the International Womens' Day, I humbly appeal to your goodself to ensure the Baby Feeding Cubicle (BFC) established in all Airports and all major Railway stations and Bus stations to help the young mothers to feed the infants with utmost privacy so that the crying baby receives the milk without any disturbance. Lack of such a facility is a big bane for all our young embarassing women to feed the infants. This essential service will be a great boon to lakhs of travelling women and innocent babies. An order from you will boost the morale of all our Indian women. This will be your great gift to women on this day, which will be memorable social service. All women will ever be ever grateful to you as they know your basic compassion to all those in distress and need of help.

Sir, I hope this essential service for women will be provided by you
