1. POSTING TO / FROM TENURE STATION:

The transfer to the tenure station will first be made from the volunteers as per the provisions stipulated in Para: 6.3 of the ATSEP Transfer Policy. The individuals may volunteer for a maximum of three terms. If their choices are not met, then they will be considered for transfer as per Transfer Seniority. The transfers to the remaining tenure stations, which could not be filled by volunteers shall be made as per Transfer Policy. The individuals may indicate as many choices of stations to/from tenure postings as they like so that their choice can be considered to the extent possible. Officers expecting Promotions during the current transfer season may also submit Posting Choices. For retention at the present tenure station, the same should be indicated as per the priority vis-i-vis requested choice stations.

2. TRANSFER ON MUTUAL GROUND:

Mutual Transfer may be considered based on exigency, proficiency and suitability in order to meet the operational requirement.

3. INTRA-REGION TRANSFER:

Intra-Region transfer will be made as per the operational requirement based on the length of continuous stay of the executives at Airports/Stations.

For the purpose of Intra-region transfer, multiple unit/section located in one city will be treated as a single station and accordingly continuous length of the stay shall be counted from the date of the joining in the city/station.

4. TENTATIVE TENURE / REGIONAL SENIORITY LIST:

The Seniority lists for the purpose of Tenure and Out of Region postings are enclosed as Annexure-III and Annexure-IV respectively.

5. DISCREPANCY IN TENURE / REGIONAL TRANSFER SENIORITY LIST:

Utmost care has been taken while preparing the enclosed Tenure / Regional Transfer Seniority lists. However, if any discrepancy exists in the list, the same may be intimated on or before 10th January 2026 with necessary documentary proof to email id: chgcns-txfr@aai.aero only for review and necessary correction as may be deemed appropriate.

6. VACANCIES AT TENURE STATIONS:

The number of likely vacancies at various tenure stations is enclosed as per Annexure-II. It may be noted that the vacancies indicated in the Annexure-II may likely to be changed at the time of actual posting due operational requirements, if any.

7. TRANSFER ON SPOUSE GROUND:

Posting on spouse ground shall be considered only if spouse is working in AAI.

8. EXCESS LEAVE AT TENURE STATION:

It is the responsibility of CNS-In-Charges to timely report CHQ for any cases of excess leave taken by the official serving at tenure station as per CHRM Circular no. 01(h)/2018.

NOTE:

- CNS-In-Charges/GMs (CNS) are requested to arrange the suitable training to meet the operational requirement due to transfer of executives and also not forward any application for retention/deferment on operational ground.
- In person meeting of official with GM/ED/Member regarding posting/exemption should be strictly avoided.
- Transfer representation regarding retention, deferment, transfer and change of posting on various grounds sent after 07 days of releasing Annual Transfers in respective cadre shall not be entertained in any case.
- Transfer representation sent by CNS official regarding retention, deferment, transfer and change of posting on various grounds shall be addressed only once. Further repeated representations will not be entertained in any case.
