Subject: Withdrawal Letter

Sir/Madam,

I represent Mr. Rupesh Kumar Jha in the matter of his complaint dated 3 November 2024, which pertains to the imposition of a fine for an alleged overstay in the pickup/drop-off zone at Bagdogra Airport on 3 November 2024.

Upon consideration with my client, I am hereby withdrawing all the complaints arisen thereof. My client also wishes to request you not to reply to his RTIs, as he has already found the information on public domain.

With this letter, all the disputes, RTIs and complaints stand withdrawn.

Sincerely,

Dharmesh Jha

Please find a copy of legal representation issued on behalf of , Mr. Rupesh Kumar Jha, attached with this email.

To summarize, I would like to inform you that Mr. Jha is a minor, and he cannot be made to pay the fine as per the Indian Contracts Act, 1872. He was not the driver of the vehicle in question, and he was forced to give his name in the fine.

I sincerely request that you kindly refund the money taken to avoid any further legal escalation.
