No. वीएसएससी/VSSC/ एपीआईओ / APIO/2017

May 16, 2017

Central Public Information Officer/Dy Secretary, DOS vide letter No.CPIO:DOS:RTI/CIR/2017/1 dated 27.04.2017 has endorsed a copy of the circular No.03/03/2017 dated 10.03.2017 received from Central Vigilance Commission, New Delhi along with Hon'ble CIC decision dated 25.06.2014 in respect of Mr Ramesh Chand Jain Vs Delhi Transport Corporation.

It was noticed by the Commission that several applicants seek some information from one wing of the public authority, and based on the responses file a bunch of RTI questions from the same or other wings of same public authority, or from other authority. This will have a continuous harassing effect of the public authority. As the PIOs go on answering, more and more questions are generated out of the same and in the same proportion the number of repeated first appeals and second appeals will be growing.

The CIC vide its decision No.CIC/AD/A/2013/001326-SA dated 25.06.2014 has decided that:-

- i. No scope of repeating under RTI Act
- ii. Citizen has no Right to Repeat
- iii. Repetitions shall be ground of refusal
- iv. Appeals can be rejected.

A copy of the CIC decision on File No.CIC/AD/A/2013/001326-SA in respect of Mr Ramesh Chand Jain Vs Delhi Transport Corporation is attached for kind information of all concerned.

FACTS

Citizen has no Right to Repeat

25. For the above reasons and based on objective of the RTI Act, its provisions, their interpretation by the Information Commissioners referred above, reading them together, this Commission observes:

- a) The citizen has no right to repeat the same or similar or slightly altered information request under RTI Act, 2005, for which he already got a response.
- b) Once an RTI application is answered, the appellants shall refrain themselves from filing another RTI application against the public authority as once information is received and held by them or posted in public domain, because such information is deemed to have ceased to be 'held' by the public authority.

Repetition shall be ground of refusal

- c) Such repetition of information request may be considered as reasonable ground for refusal under the RTI Act.
- d) An applicant or appellant repeating the RTI application or appeal either once or multiple times, suppressing the fact of earlier application and receipt of the answer, the CPIO of public authority may reject it forthwith after intimating it along with reasons.

Appeals can be rejected

- e) The First Appellate Authority and Commission may be right and reasonable to consider this as a ground for rejecting the first or second appeal, respectively among other reasons if any.

Recommendations

26. To address the problem of 'harassing & repeated questions', the Commission recommends the respondent authority to analyze all the RTI applications filed by such appellants, compile all the questions contained therein and indicate the information provided
