3.1

AAI (RETIRED EMPLOYEES) MEDICAL BENEFIT SCHEME

1. TITLE

The Scheme will be known as AAI (Retired Employees) Medical Benefit Scheme (Amended) 2008.

2. OBJECTIVE

The Scheme is framed with a view to provide medical attendance to the employees of AAI and their spouse's subsequent to their retirement on superannuation on contributory basis.

3. ELIGIBILITY

3.1 This Scheme will apply to the following categories :

- 3.1.1. Employees who retire from the services of AAI on attaining the age of superannuation, provided they have completed a minimum period of ten years continuous service in AAI, including the service rendered by them in erstwhile IAAI, NAA, other Public Sector Undertakings and Central/State Government Organizations.
- 3.1.2. Employees retired from the services of IAAI and were covered by the Medical Benefit Scheme already in existence for them which stands repealed, consequent upon introduction of the scheme of AAI.
- 3.1.3 Employees who retired on superannuation from the services of NAA on or after 2.10.89 subject to fulfillment of the following conditions :-
- 3.1.3.1 They had, on the date of superannuation, completed a minimum period of ten years continuous service in NAA including the service rendered by them in other Public Sector Undertaking or Central/State Government Organization.
- 3.1.3.2 They are not availing medical facility under any scheme from any other body in Public Sector Undertaking or Central/State Government Organization.
- 3.1.3.3 They register themselves in accordance with this scheme, for benefit on prospective basis.
- 3.1.4 Permanently disabled employees, retired prematurely from AAI on medical grounds (Permanently disabled employee is one who has sustained injury while in service of the Authority and the injury is such as to permanently disable the employee). This will be subject to medical examination.
- 3.1.5 The medical facility is applicable to the retired employee and his / her spouse. In addition disabled / spastic children suffering from incurable disease with more than 60% of deformity / disability living with retired employee will be included as dependant.

3.1.6 Board level appointee if the Member :

- i) Has completed minimum one year of service as a Board Member/Chairman
- ii) has attained the age of 55 years; and
- iii) has not opted the Medical facility of any other Organization on leaving AAI.

3.1.7 Employees who prematurely/voluntarily retire from the service of AAI after attaining the age of 50 years subject to their having rendered a minimum service of 10 years or as stipulated in (i) and (ii) of 3.1.6 above. However, the medical facility will be available to them only after attaining the age of superannuation.

3.1.8 The spouse of the employee, if the employee expired while in service, is interested to avail of the benefits of the Scheme can be permitted to avail the medical facility as is applicable to retired employee i.e. the employee had otherwise completed 10 years of service and the spouse of the deceased employee is not employed and not getting any reimbursement/medical benefits from any other source.

4 Application of the Scheme

- 4.1 The eligible employee/beneficiary is required to pay contribution as required by the Authority.
- 4.2 The scheme will apply to those employees only who are not getting medical benefits of any other medical scheme after retirement, such as CGHS etc.
- 4.3 The benefit of this scheme to the registered retired employee will start from the date of normal superannuation except 3.1.4 in which case the benefit will start from the actual date of retirement.
- 4.4 The service rendered under the Central Government or the Public Sector Undertakings shall be continuous and immediately precede, without any break, the service in the AAI, so as to compute the required eligibility period of 10 years. However, any gap on account of joining time, leave, intervening holidays etc., will not constitute a break in service.
- 4.5 If the spouse of a retired employee is employed in AAI, or in any other PSU or Govt. Department and Medical Attendance Benefits are available in that organization, in that event the medical facility under the scheme will be available subject to the option of availing benefit from either of the sources only. This option can not be changed at a later date.
- 4.6 The scheme is purely 'Voluntary'.
- 4.7 If for any reason, the AAI is not in a position to continue the post retirement medical benefit scheme and the same is scrapped, contributions once paid by retired employee will not be refunded.
